

Hosting Font Awesome Yourself

Prefer to get a copy and use Font Awesome alongside your own project’s source code while building locally and serving in production? Downloading and hosting Font Awesome yourself is great for when you have many sites or apps in one codebase or want to customize parts of Font Awesome for your workflow.

You've download a copy already, right?

Make sure you've downloaded a copy of our for the web-specific files. You'll need it to do any of the following things we'll be walking through.

Download Font Awesome Free for the Web < https://use.fontawesome.com/releases/v5.9.0/fontawesome-free-5.9.0-web.zip&g

What’s in the Download?

The web-focused Font Awesome Package contains the following directories and files:

Files & Folders	What They Are	Where You Should Start
/css	Stylesheets for Web Fonts	all.css
/js	SVG with JavaScript	all.js
/less	Less pre-processor	fontawesome.less
/scss	Sass pre-processor	fontawesome.scss
/sprites	SVG sprites	solid.svg
/svgs	Individual SVG for each icon	individual *.svg icons
/webfonts	Web Font files used with CSS	See /css

AD monday — The revolutionary project management tool is here and it’s visual. Start Your Free Trial Now.

Using Web Fonts with CSS

The /css/all.css file contains the core styling plus all of the icon styles that you’ll need when using Font Awesome. The /webfonts folder contains all of the typeface files that the above CSS references and depends on.

Copy the entire /webfonts folder and the /css/all.css into your project’s static assets directory (or

